Two Lives Lost In Big Storm

Two lives at least, and possibly more, are the tolls of the big storm that ragged here last Thursday. Charles Ya-cook and George Kelly left Deep Bay on Zarembo Island bound for Wrangell on the gas boat Susie, last Thursday, which was the last seen of either alive. The boat was found drifting Saturday between Vank's Island and Brush Island, with all her upper works a total wreck and her house carried away. A searching party was sent out at once to look for the missing men, and Peter Johnson and George Shakes found the body of Ya-cook on the lower end of Vank's Island where he had evidently perished from exposure. He had discarded his clothing all except a suit of underwear and placed a life belt on and succeeded in swimming ashore where he arrived exhausted after his battle with the waves and crawled up the beach some fifty feet from high water mark where he probably became numb from the cold and perished. The body of Kelly has not been found and it is believed that he perished as he was not used to roughing it as he only arrived up from a school in the states some three weeks ago.

Charley Ya-cook was a well known native of Wrangell and leaves a widow. He was about 49 years of age. George Kelly was about 18 years old and leaves a father, John Kelly, and two brothers here and a sister in Juneau. John Kelley heading a searching party is still looking for his body.

Leo McCormack Manager Of Basket Ball

The Wrangell Athletic Club held a meeting last Monday evening at the town. While a good number of members were present the feature of meeting was, that there was twenty-four applications for membership in the club, all of whom were duly elected. The matter of a Manager for the basket ball team was taken up and Leo McCormack was duly elected for the position.

According to a report, Mr. F. H. Grey, deputy Fish Warden here, is sick in the hospital at Juneau. We are unable to learn any particulars.

Wrangell Has First Game Of Season

The first game of basket ball of the season was played at the Rink last Saturday night and resulted in a victory for the first team by a score of 72 to 16. Although the game was very one-sided the boys played hard and the game was an interesting one. Ed Lynch held basket honors for the game, throwing 14 field baskets, and Fred Lewis is next with 10 field baskets and two fouls, and Harry Coulter is next with 9 field baskets and Clarence Lewis one, making the score of the first team. For the second team, Lloyd Myers has five baskets to his credit, Fred Choquette has one and Wm. Lewis Jr. two making the sixteen count of the second team. Geo. Northrup refereed the game very satisfactorily.

After the game a good time was held at which every one had a good time dancing to the excellent music of the Wrangell Orchestra. J. G. Grant acting as floor manager in his capable way.

A good show at the Wrangell Photoshow tonight.

Merchants Giving Good Souviners

Many different styles of calendars are being shown and given away by the enterprising merchants of Wrangell, and not only calendars, but several other useful articles are included in the seasons tokens. From Matheson's Department Store comes a beautiful calendar with a drawing by the popular artist Howard Chandler Christy, and a Christmas present for the ladies of a beautiful hand painted dish. The Wrangell Hotel has a large calendar carrying with it a picture of the Hotel. Chas. Benjamin has about as nifty a thing as seen in the calendar line, a Ready Reference Calendar containing under the picture on the front, a very handy booklet of useful information. The City Meat Market have a very beautiful hand painted picture. The Wrangell Drug Co. have not as yet received their calendar. The Wrangell Meat Market have a beautiful picture and are also giving out a pencil and pen combination carrying their advertisement. The St. Michael Trading Co. have not yet received theirs is also the case at Martin Heistrad's. Adolph Engstrom has a nice subject for his calendar. Taking them all, they are a very complete collection and all are appropriate subjects.

Anchorage, Dec. 9.—Over a ton of gold is coming out from the Iditarod. Four dog teams are employed to haul it.

Old Time Indian Slave Passes Away

"King George", a blind native and a character well known to Wrangell, passed away in his cabin back of the Charlie Ching Shun store last Saturday.

"King George" whose real name is unknown, and whose history would make good fiction, was about 80 years old and has been a resident of Wrangell for about 30 years.

"King George" is one of the last living slaves of the Alaskan natives, having been captured and brought to Alaska over sixty years ago by the Klawock tribe returning from a plundering expedition down into the Canadian territory, and it is probably to that fact that he was called "King George". At the time he was brought to Alaska he was only a boy, and worked as a slave for the Klawock natives until the advance of the United States government placed that under the ban, then he was given his freedom although a close watch was always kept on him because he was supposed to be the grandson of an evil spirit and associated with witchcraft. But somehow he managed to escape from his guardians and came to Wrangell and asked the government authorities here to protect him as they had threatened to kill him for practicing witchcraft. He lived and fished about Wrangell until only a few years ago when he went totally blind, and even since that time he has been a familiar figure setting cutting wood on the beach or finding his way to his shack dragging his fire wood along with him.

Miners Return From Groudhog Mine Today

C. L. Leeds Bert McKay and Commodore Jackson, who for the past month have been driving the tunnel in at the Groudhog Mine came in from there this afternoon to spend the holidays in town. They report that the work of driving the tunnel is progressing fine and expect to find the big lead anytime.

Oscar Willets, during the past week, has circulated a petition for the signatures of the business men and citizens addressed to the judge asking that the old court house be torn down. The petition was well received.

This is something that certainly needs attention as the old building in its dilapidated condition is a sore eye to us all.

Christmas Dance At Photoshow

The Wrangell Orchestra has completed all arrangements for their big Xmas Dance, to be given Saturday night, in the Redmens Hall, and no pains has been spared to make it a Big Success. The floor will be in fine shape and a good time is assured, every one.

Mrs. Iverson has resided for some time here with Mr. and Mrs. Patenaude and was accompanied home only a short time ago by Mrs. Patenaude.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

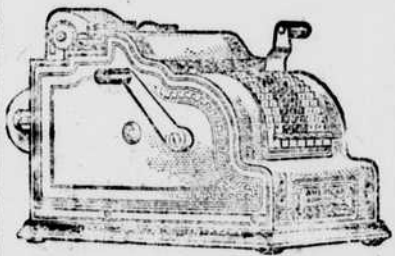

A Roadless Land.
Russia is almost a roadless land. It is inconceivable to the foreign visitor who has ever left the beaten track of the railways in Russia how a great empire can have subsisted so long and so successfully without even a pretense at roads. The secret lies in the fact that for five or six months in the year nature herself provides roads over the greater part of Russia—admirable smooth, glossy roadways over hard worn snow. The traffic is further cheapened over these roads by the substitution of a sledge runner for the wheel and axle. This brings the cost of land carriage as near the cheapness of water borne freight as possible, and it is the principal reason why Russia in the twentieth century is still a roadless land.

Original Confidence Man.
A story is told of old New York and of how the expression "confidence man" meant a man in whom one could not place confidence at all. It is said that some years ago a very well dressed man, with a courteous address, was wont to walk up and down the principal streets of the city. Whenever he met a stranger who looked hopeful to him he would approach the man, and with the most delightfully frank manner he would ask:
"My dear sir, have you confidence enough in me, an entire stranger to you, to lend me $5 for an hour or two?"
And it is said that the man made an extremely good living by this very simple means.—New York Sun.

A Domestic Jar.
"I might have married a millionaire," declared Everywoman. "One of my old schoolmates is now one."
"And several of your schoolmates are working right in this town for $10 a week," retorted Everyman, "while one of them is in jail. I guess in marrying a chap getting $1,500 a year your average is fairly good."
And then Everybody set up a howl, and they had to stop quarreling to attend to him.—Pittsburgh Post.

All precious stones, according to a gem expert, are the better for frequent sun bathing.

Must Be Queer.
"He's a peculiar chap."
"Why so?"
"He not only goes shopping with his wife, but he also admits that he likes to"—Detroit Free Press.

Soap Made the Boat Go.
A writer in Science tells of an ingenious little skiff about two inches long which he constructed and provided with a piece of soap for the motor. The boat was of wood, paraffined to repel the water. The soap formed the stern board of the skiff. The boat was placed on still water in a bathtub and began to move as soon as the water came in contact with the soap. After gathering headway it reached a velocity of two inches a second. The power was derived from the potential energy of the surface water film set free by the diminution of surface tension, this reduction being due to solution of the soap.

A Pig in a Poke.
A pig poker is a dealer in pigs—not the large and portly fellow whom you meet now and again at the country market with a cargo of a hundred or more pigs of all ages, shapes and sizes for sale, but a little man who for the most part carries his wares upon his back or occasionally perhaps in a wheelbarrow. A "poke," of course, is a pocket or sack, and a pig poker, therefore, is one who deals in pigs carried round from place to place in a poke. The old proverb about the foolishness of "buying a pig in a poke" has its origin, of course, in this time honored method of pig purveying.—London Globe.

The Vital Question.
This overheard conversation is full of matter for consideration. The speakers were girls, one apparently young, the other trying to appear young. Get the subtle distinction? Well, one of them was saying: "I met Jimmy Teppid yesterday. You know Jimmy, don't you?"
"Sure I know him, or I used to. Did you tell him I was going to be married soon?"
"I sure did!"
"Did he ask how soon?"
"Well, he asked something like that."
"Didn't he say, 'How soon?'"
"No, dearie; he said, 'How long?'"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

At a Disadvantage.
While awaiting the coming of her friend, the mother, a visitor to a Baltimore household was holding a desultory conversation with one of the little girls in the drawing room.
"Where are your two little sisters?" the caller asked.
"Oh, they," observed the little girl with the air of one upon whom responsibilities rest heavily—"they're out somewhere to have what mother calls 'mischief' and what they call 'fun.'"
"And why didn't you go to share in the 'fun'?" asked the caller.
The child sighed. "Mother trusts me so dreadfully," she explained, "that I can't have much fun."—Lippincott's.

His Way of Helping.
When he examines in civics the pet question of a certain teacher is:
"What would you do to cut down the expenses of running the city?"
That question appeals to youthful patriots and embryo financiers, and civic reformers evolve brilliant schemes several millions of dollars

Happy Days.
However varied the courses of our life, whatsoever the phase of pleasure and ambition through which it has swept along, still, when in memory we would revive the times that were comparatively the happiest, these times will be found to have been the calmer.—Bulwer Lytton.

Cute Boy.
Widow Eames—How would my little Johnny like a new papa?
Johnny (aged five)—Oh, you needn't shove the 'sponsibility on me, ma. It isn't a new papa for me, but a new husband for yourself, that you are thinking about.

A good show at the Photoshow tonight.

Andrew Engstrom is the proud owner of a new bicycle.

Mrs. Lindman is taking a vacation from her duties at the Wrangell Hotel.

Donald Sinclair made a business trip to Juneau and back the first of the week.

LOST--A nugget and old ivory piece from a watch fob. Reward if returned to J. R. Bender.

Robert Royalty and family came in the first of the week from camp and will spend the holidays in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Katzemeyer returned on the Alki yesterday morning from a trip to the states. They report a good time.

Mrs. Pigg returned on the Northwestern from an extended visiting trip east and Doc. once more has his smile back.

Wesley Sornberger and E. P. Moran were taken over the trail to the local camp of the Arctic Brotherhood last Wednesday evening.

Found--A gentlemen's pocket-book. Owner prove property and pay for this ad at the Sentinel office.

Chas. M. Tibbetts, son of Mr. Tibbetts of Craig, arrived up on the City of Seattle and is on his way to the West Coast for a visit with his father whom he has not seen for many years.

The gasboat Alaskan came in port yesterday on her way to Ketchikan. The boys aboard are from the new light house at Point St. Elias and are bound for Ketchikan to spend Christmas.

Twins, a son and a daughter, were born to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rinehart last night. Mother and children are doing well and Lloyd is passing around the cigars. Dr. Shurick was in attendance.

The work on the new tug boat for the Willson & Sylvester Mill Co., being built by William Reade, is progressing very rapidly and within the next few days the calkers will start work on her. The new boat is expected to be finished about the first of February.

If anyone should think that our City Alderman, Arnt Sorset, is not a happy man, all you have to do is to take a look at that big smile of his. The reason is that a fine big baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Sorset Tuesday morning. Mother and daughter are doing fine under the care of Dr. Shurick.

Capt. McKay, this week, presented Mayor Grant with a beautiful, hand carved, cribbage board. Captain carried this board from a piece of old ivory and is a beauty when you consider it was made with a pocket knife, a sail needle and a small file.

Harry James and wife were passengers for Wrangell on the Alki yesterday morning. Mr. James has spent the last three months in Eastern Washington and states that that section is having very bad times.

Joe Kalchbrenner, the popular barber at the Wrangell Hotel, was a passenger south on the Alameda bound for Tacoma, Wash., where he goes to spend Christmas with home folks. Joe will return after the holidays and it is rumored that he has rented a cottage here and left orders for it to be furnished for two by his return.

Christmas at St Philips Church

Christmas will be observed at St. Philips Church, starting with services and Holy Communion at 11:30 Christmas eve and also at 10:30 Christmas morning. The Sunday School exercises will be held in the gymnasium at 7:30 on Christmas night. The program will consist of songs and recitations by the primary class under the leadership of Miss Wigg, and two short sketches entitled "Peggy's Presence of Mind" and "Richard Kempner's Christmas" and also songs by the native school. All are cordially invited to attend these services and entertainment.

Public School Holds Xmas Exercises

The Wrangell public school held their Christmas exercises this afternoon, a Christmas tree in the primary room, a Christmas tree and program in the intermediate room, and a party in the higher grades. Mr. Donald Sinclair presented the school with a crate of oranges and a box of apples which were very gratefully received by all. The children are now out on their Christmas vacation until Jan. 3.

Wrangell Old Timer Dies At Juneau

According to the Juneau papers, Mr. Ed Garlick, one of the old timers of Wrangell and the West Coast, passed away at the hospital in Juneau, and was buried by the Arctic Brotherhood camp of that city.

Mr. Garlick was well known here and for the past few years has lived at Tokken on the West Coast. He was about 55 years of age and has no relation living here. He is well respected by all who know him.

Clippings From Our Alaska Exchanges

The largest shipment of salmon ever sent across the continent in one train left Puget sound on November 13, over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway and was valued at approximately $220,000.

Clippings From Our Alaska Exchanges

FAIRBANKS, Dec. 15.—Henry T. Ray, townsite trustee and formerly grand Arctic Chief of the Arctic Brotherhood, had a miraculous escape from death here two days ago when he fell thru a trap door at the hall. He fell to the bottom of the cellar and as he fell he hit a chain which brought the trap door down on top of him. When the fireman rushed to his aid in full expectation of finding him dead they found that he suffered only from cuts and bruises which will soon be well.

In a mine back of Juneau a machine man and helper drilled fourteen holes in the wall or face of solid rock. The holes were loaded and the machine man lit the fuses while the helper was clearing away some tools. Just when they were all burning a slab of rock fell from above and pinioned the machine man against the face where they had been drilling. He could not escape. In a moment the terrible blasts would complete the tale. The helper seeing the predicament opened his pocket knife and began cutting the fuses. When about half through a second rock fell and broke his arm. He took the knife in his other hand and finished cutting the fuses, and then called for help to extricate the machine man. There was a example of presence of mind and cool bravery.—Douglas News.

Art Thebo and family came in last night from the Wrangell Narrows where they have spent the past month at the shrimp camp. Mr. Thebo is interested in the camp and reports that the business looks very promising and that the shrimp are receiving a good price where ever they have been placed on sale. They have placed them on the market at Juneau where they are disposing of over fifty pounds per day.
